MISCELLANEA LATOMORUM

(or Masonic Notes and Queries)

‘A series intended to facilitate Intercommunication between Masonic Students on matters of interest in connection with FREEMASONRY.’

Miscellanea Latomorum, affectionately known as ‘Misc.Lat.’ by Masonic scholars and students alike was a series produced by the Quatuor Coronati Lodge (No. 2076), the Premier Lodge of Masonic Research.

The series of booklets, (in total 291 issues) were published from May 1911 until June 1947 when both the cost of production and general demand appeared to have taken their effects and therefore ceased to exist. However, although becoming increasingly rare, it is still used by the modern-day Masonic researcher and considered to be a valuable reference work.

Set in the style of submitted Queries and ‘authoritative’ Replies, hundreds of entries on a wide range of Masonic history and topics can be found within its pages which is of interest today as it was fifty years ago.

Two attempts have been made in the past to provide an overall index. The first from Dr. E.H. Cartwright which covered both the Old and the New Series up until Volume XVIII whilst a second index was compiled by Bro. T. Barlow, a member of staff at Freemasons’ Hall of the United Grand Lodge of England, which ran from Volumes XIX to XXXI.

The task, therefore, was to merge the work of these two Brethren so as to provide a fully cross-referenced index enabling subject matter to be identified and referred to which would be of benefit for those who frequently use Miscellanea Latomorum as a ‘Working Tool’ in their respective studies.

It is hoped that this index will satisfy that intention.

B.P. Baker, June 1990
